Jacqueline A. Robinson

ASSOCIATE

Jacqueline Robinson is an associate with the Firm's Los Angeles office. She is a member of the Litigation Practice Group with a focus on representing insurance carriers, corporations, individuals, and governmental entities in all aspects of general civil litigation. She is also a member of the Insurance Practice Group where her practice is focused on insurance coverage, which includes in-depth coverage analysis, insurance coverage litigation, and defense of bad faith actions.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Robinson was a member of the civil litigation department at Yukevich | Cavanaugh. She obtained favorable results for clients in numerous complex litigation matters, including summary judgment on matters of first impression.

Ms. Robinson received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Government, as well as a minor in Law and Society, from Cornell University. She thereafter earned her J.D. from Southwestern Law School where she served as President of Southwestern's chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta international law fraternity, as well as Secretary for the Environmental Law Society. She also served as a co-director of Off-Campus Student Affairs for Southwestern's Student Bar Association and as an extern with the Center for Civic Mediation, a division of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.
